Devon Energy Senior Vice President to Retire

OKLAHOMA CITY (Sept. 10, 2015) – Vance White, senior vice president of communications and investor relations for Devon Energy will retire March 1, 2016. White has directed the company’s investor relations program since 1993.

“Vince’s leadership of our investor relations and communications programs has been outstanding in every respect, with an uncompromising commitment to integrity,” said John Richels, president and CEO.

Howard J. Thrill, a 32-year veteran of Devon Energy, will fill the position created by White’s retirement. Thrill has 15 years leading investor relations, communications and government relations efforts for major oil and gas concerns. He most recently served as vice president of corporate, government and investor relations at Marathon Oil Corporation in Houston, Texas. Prior to Marathon, Thrill was the director of investor relations with Phillips Petroleum Company.

Under White, the company has grown from small independent exploration and
